

The Adventures

Catalina Island

Seek a thrilling adventure with one of the many excursions to discover the wild side of Catalina Island. You will leave with unbelievable experiences that will get your adrenaline pumping.

Morning

After your one-hour boat ride to Avalon, start off the journey with a filling breakfast at Catalina Island Brew House. Located right at the corner of Crescent Avenue, Brew House has a magnificent view of the bay to look out on while satisfying your hunger. Get the Egg and Cheese Croissant or the Quiche with a fresh cup of coffee to fuel up for the day ahead.

Afternoon

Walk off breakfast while heading up to the Wrigley Memorial & Botanic Garden for a tour through one of the most honored landmarks on Catalina. A tribute to William Wrigley Jr. himself, the memorial recognizes his vision to protect the future of the Island for years to come. Surrounding the Wrigley memorial is the Botanic Garden that was created for Ada Wrigley, William Wrigley Jr.'s wife. It was known to be her private desert plant collection holding unique exotic specimens.

Once you've explored the iconic monument, it's time to get your adrenaline pumping with the Catalina Zipline Tour two-hour excursion, glide on the five different lines of speeds up to 35 mph across the canyon. You'll encounter ocean views and towering eucalyptus trees on this sensational experience.

Gear up for a water adventure on rented kayaks from Wet Spot Rentals. You'll put your strength to the test by paddling up and down Catalina Islands coastline. You can even cool off in the water with their snorkel gear or stand-up paddle boards.

Evening

Head back to town for an authentic Mexican dinner at Mi Casita. Choose from a full menu of meals that range from steak to seafood dishes. Known to be home of the Catalina Cazuela, order a drink to cheers to the end of your Catalina adventure!

On your way back to the Catalina Express, stop by one of the shops downtown for a memorable souvenir.

Stay

If you are looking to extend your adventure, Catalina is home to many hotels to lay your head at night after a long day exploring. Just steps away from the beach, Seaport Village Inn is Catalina's family run bed and breakfast hotel. The Avalon Hotel is also bound to sweep you away with their ocean views and premier boutique inn.
