Catalina Island

Discover the history of Catalina Island that has inspired artists and musicians for years. From the art-deco architecture, the colorful tile murals and many galleries, art and culture is truly around every corner.

Morning

Begin your Catalina Island experience with morning breakfast from the Bistro at the Atwater. Walk down Avalon's waterfront with your cup of coffee and pastry while spotting unique Catalina tilework.

Afternoon

Visit the iconic Catalina Casino for a tour of the Avalon Theatre, an art deco masterpiece. The Avalon Theater is one of the first movie houses to be built for "talkies". Admire the murals that were hand-painted and designed by John Gabriel Beckman while learning about the history from a knowledgeable tour guide.

Craving a traditional, tasty meal? Take a taxi to Buffalo Nickel for a selection of different cuisines. This local spot puts a modern twist to their classic American menu. From buffalo burgers to fresh seafood, there's a meal for everyone.

Evening

Explore art and history exhibitions at the Catalina Museum for Art & History. Observe the ways in which the Island has inspired so many people in different forms of creativity. The history will bring you back in time to learn all about Catalina Island.

For dinner, feast on high quality Mexican food at Maggie's Blue Rose with a view of Avalon bay. Start off with their Street Corn on the Cob, then end with Maggie's Chile Relleno. You can't forget to try the Blue Rose margarita, their signature cocktail.

Stay

Formally known as the home of the Wrigley family, Mt. Ada will make you feel cozy with its comforting ambiance. Mt. Ada has a magnificent view of Avalon bay from their large outdoor terrace where you can sit and relax or enjoy a meal. Stay overnight on the hillside of Avalon at the historically modernized Zane Grey Hotel. Originally built in 1926 by Zane Grey, renowned novelist, as his vacation home then newly remodeled in 2019.
