Catalina Island

Experience the hidden gem of Catalina Island on the west end in Two Harbors. Explore the rugged terrains, blue seas, and the secluded atmosphere that makes this quaint town so unique.

DAY 1

Morning

Take the morning Catalina Express boat from San Pedro to Two Harbors to begin your adventurous getaway. Once you've arrived, make your first stop at the West End Galley snack bar for a delicious breakfast. The Galley is a casual spot that offers a variety of breakfast entrees.

Afternoon

After you've fueled up on food, it's time to discover unimaginable views on Two Harbors trails. With its diverse terrain, Catalina trails are fit for hikers and bikers who are at any level of endurance. You'll have a chance to unplug and reconnect in nature surrounded by a serene environment.

Evening

End your first day in Two Harbors at the Harbor Reef Restaurant for an island-style dinner. Where South Pacific casual meets world-class views, Harbor Reef Restaurant features a selection of appetizing bites and entrees. Pop on over to the Harbor Reef Saloon for signature cocktails and dance the night away under the beaming stars.

DAY 2

Morning

Day two calls for a cooling dip in the crystal-clear water with thrilling water activities. Two Harbors Dive & Recreation Center has a variety of recreation equipment available to rent ranging from scuba gear to kayaks. Whether you want to stay above the water or dive head first, there's a water activity for everyone to enjoy.

Afternoon

Wind down and lounge out in the last few hours of your Two Harbors journey at Harbor Sands. Relax in the warm sun on a pair of chaise lounge chairs or a private, intimate palapa. Indulge in a tasty lunch of savory meals and signature drinks served by their friendly staff. This charming oasis will take you to paradise.

Stay

Immerse yourself in the rustic charm of Two Harbors with an unplugged experience at the Banning House Lodge. Banning House Lodge is a historic bed and breakfast inn located on a hill above Two Harbors and is surrounded by lush palm trees.

For a unique island stay, camp out and disconnect from the outside world. Two Harbors has campgrounds that offer sites on a secluded beach or within the Island's interior. Two Harbors is the perfect destination to escape the hustle of reality.
